Letter from the Hon. A. H. Stephens.

He indorses the Call, and Announces His Intention to Attend the Convention.

Special Dispatch to The N. Y. Tribune.

WASHINGTON, July 29, 1866.

To the Editor of The National Intelligencer.

GENTLEMEN: I ask a place in your columns for the enclosed letter to me from the Hon. Alexander H. Stephens.

In communicating it to the press I am taking a questionable liberty with him, for the letter is marked private. But in the present circumstances of the country I think it no desirable that the people should know the real temper of the South than I feel justified in publishing this letter from one who at the outbreak of the war was the representative man of the Union party of the South, and is the recognized exponent of the Southern sentiment at this moment.

President Lincoln had great confidence in Mr. Stephens. He told me repeatedly that he had offered him a seat in the Cabinet, and he retained great regard for him to the last.

Yours, respectfully, M. BLAIR

McIntyre, Montgomery, Ala., July 29, 1866.

CHANNING, Ga., July 29, 1866.

To the Hon. Montgomery Blair, Washington, D. C.

DEAR SIR: Your letter of the 17th inst. is before me.

I thank you heartily for it. No man in the United States did or could more cordially approve and indorse the objects of the proposed Union Convention at Philadelphia, as I understand them, than I did, and yet, from considerations of expediency, I doubt the propriety of my taking an active part in it.

I was also in doubt to some extent whether, with other views on the part of those who made the call, the words were so phrased in the call as to exclude all who occupied a similar position to my own, and from other considerations, as from this last class of doubt, but these of the other class exist, notwithstanding your strong views to the contrary. I do not, however, feel that I am in a position to do so.

I am not willing to do so, for I am not in a position to do so.

I am not willing to do so, for I am not in a position to do so.

I am not willing to do so, for I am not in a position to do so.

I am not willing to do so, for I am not in a position to do so.

I am not willing to do so, for I am not in a position to do so.

I am not willing to do so, for I am not in a position to do so.

I am not willing to do so, for I am not in a position to do so.

I am not willing to do so, for I am not in a position to do so.

I am not willing to do so, for I am not in a position to do so.

I am not willing to do so, for I am not in a position to do so.

I am not willing to do so, for I am not in a position to do so.

I am not willing to do so, for I am not in a position to do so.
